EPSTEIN - MAXWELL

Details of a civil lawsuit, made public in January 2015, contained a deposition from [redacted] that accused Maxwell of recruiting her in 1999, when she was a minor, and grooming her to provide sexual services for Epstein.[22] A 2018 exposé by Julie K. Brown in the Miami Herald revealed [redacted] to be [redacted], who was previously known as [redacted] met Maxwell at Donald Trump's Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, Florida, when [redacted] was a 16-year-old spa attendant.[22] She asserted that Maxwell had introduced her to Epstein, after which she was "groomed by the two [of them] for his pleasure, including lessons in Epstein's preferences during oral sex".[22][63]

Maxwell has repeatedly denied any involvement in Epstein's crimes.[51] In a 2015 statement, Maxwell rejected allegations that she has acted as a procurer for Epstein and denied that she had "facilitated Prince Andrew's [alleged] acts of sexual abuse". Her spokesperson said "the allegations made against Ghislaine Maxwell are untrue" and she "strongly denies allegations of an unsavoury nature, which have appeared in the British press and elsewhere, and reserves her right to seek redress at the repetition of such old defamatory claims".[58][64]

[redacted] asserted that Maxwell and Epstein had trafficked her and other underage girls, often at sex parties hosted by Epstein at his homes in New York, New Mexico, Palm Beach, and the United States Virgin Islands. Maxwell called her a liar. [redacted] sued Maxwell for defamation in federal court in the Southern District of New York in 2015. While details of the settlement have not been made public, in May 2017 the case was settled in [redacted] favour,[65] with Maxwell paying [redacted] "millions".[66]

[redacted] v Epstein and Maxwell (2017) - MAXWELL DESTRUCTION OF CAREER PROSPECTS - COMPLY.

In 2017, [redacted] filed a suit, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, against Epstein and Maxwell, alleging that Maxwell hired her to give massages to Epstein and later threatened to physically harm her or destroy her career prospects if she did not comply with their sexual demands at his mansion in New York and on his private Caribbean island, Little Saint James. The suit was settled in 2018 under undisclosed terms.[9][48][67][68]

Affidavit filed by [redacted] (2019)

On 16 April 2019, [redacted] went public and filed a sworn affidavit in federal court in New York, alleging that she and her 15-year-old sister, [redacted], had been sexually assaulted by Epstein and Maxwell in separate locations in 1996. [redacted] affidavit was filed in support of a defamation suit by [redacted] against Alan Dershowitz.[69] According to the affidavit, [redacted] had met Maxwell and Epstein at a New York art gallery reception in 1995. The affidavit says that in the summer of the following year, they hired her to work on an art project in billionaire businessman Leslie Wexner's Ohio mansion, where she was then sexually assaulted by both Maxwell and Epstein.[70][71] [redacted] reported the incident to the New York Police Department and the FBI.[52][72] Her affidavit also stated that during the same summer, Epstein flew her then 15-year-old sister, [redacted], to his New Mexico property where he and Maxwell molested her on a massage table.[73][74]

[redacted] was interviewed for CBS This Morning in November 2019 where she detailed the 1996 assault and alleged that Maxwell had threatened both her career and her life after the assault.[75]

TRUMP TWITTER SINCE 2009 - EPSTEIN - MAXWELL TARGETING

Trump was the only president to never reach a 50% approval rating in the Gallup poll dating to 1938. The approval ratings showed a record partisan gap: 88 percent among Republicans, 7 percent among Democrats.[693] Until September 2020, the ratings were unusually stable, reaching a high of 49 percent and a low of 35 percent.[694] Trump finished his term with a record-low approval rating of between 29 percent and 34 percent (the lowest of any president since modern polling began) and a record-low average of 41 percent throughout his presidency.[693][695]

In Gallup's annual poll asking Americans to name the man they admire the most, Trump placed second to Obama in 2017 and 2018, tied with Obama for most admired man in 2019, and was named most admired in 2020.[696][697] Since Gallup started conducting the poll in 1948, Trump is the first elected president not to be named most admired in his first year in office.[698]

A Gallup poll in 134 countries comparing the approval ratings of U.S. leadership between the years 2016 and 2017 found that Trump led Obama in job approval in only 29, most of them non-democracies,[699] with approval of US leadership plummeting among US allies and G7 countries. Overall ratings were similar to those in the last two years of the George W. Bush presidency.[700] By mid-2020, only 16% of international respondents to a 13-nation Pew Research poll expressed confidence in Trump, a lower score than those historically accorded to Russia's Vladimir Putin and China's Xi Jinping.[701]

C-SPAN, which has surveyed presidential historians on presidential leadership each time the administration changed since 2000,[702] ranked Trump fourth–lowest overall in their Presidential Historians Survey 2021, with Trump rated lowest in the leadership characteristics categories for moral authority and administrative skills.[703][704][1]

Social media

Trump's social media presence attracted attention worldwide since he joined Twitter in 2009. He frequently tweeted during the 2016 election campaign and as president, until his ban in the final days of his term.[705] Over twelve years, Trump posted around 57,000 tweets, often using Twitter as a direct means of communication with the public and sidelining the press.[706] In June 2017, a White House press secretary said that Trump's tweets were official presidential statements.[707] Trump often announced terminations of administration officials and cabinet members over Twitter.[708]

After years of criticism for allowing Trump to post misinformation and falsehoods, Twitter began to tag some of his tweets with fact-checking warnings in May 2020.[709] In response, Trump tweeted that "Social Media Platforms totally silence conservatives [sic] voices" and that he would "strongly regulate, or close them down".[710] In the days after the storming of the United States Capitol, Trump was banned from Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and other platforms.[711] Twitter blocked attempts by Trump and his staff to circumvent the ban through the use of others' accounts.[712] The loss of Trump's social media megaphone, including his 88.7 million Twitter followers, diminished his ability to shape events,[713][714] and prompted a dramatic decrease in the volume of misinformation shared on Twitter.[715] In May 2021, an advisory group to Facebook evaluated that site's indefinite ban of Trump and concluded that it had been justified at the time but should be re-evaluated in six months.[716] In June 2021, Facebook suspended the account for two years.[717] Later in June, Trump joined the video platform Rumble[718] and began to post the messages of his website blog on the Twitter account of a spokesperson.[719] Trump's attempts to re-establish a social media presence were unsuccessful. In May 2021 he launched a blog that had low readership and was closed after less than a month.[720]

Relationship with the press

EFTA00263618

Some of Trump's falsehoods were inconsequential, such as his claims of a large crowd size during his inauguration.[741][742] Others had more far-reaching effects, such as Trump's promotion of unproven antimalarial drugs as a treatment for COVID-19 in a press conference and on Twitter in March 2020.[743][744] The claims had consequences worldwide, such as a shortage of these drugs in the United States and panic-buying in Africa and South Asia.[745][746] Other misinformation, such as misattributing a rise in crime in England and Wales to the "spread of radical Islamic terror", served Trump's domestic political purposes.[747] As a matter of principle, Trump does not apologize for his falsehoods.[748]

Despite the frequency of Trump's falsehoods, the media rarely referred to them as lies.[749][750] The first time The Washington Post did so was in August 2018, when it declared that some of Trump's misstatements, in particular those concerning hush money paid to Stormy Daniels and Playboy model Karen McDougal, were lies.[751][750]

In 2020, Trump was a significant source of disinformation on mail-in voting and misinformation on the COVID-19 pandemic.[752][753] His attacks on mail-in ballots and other election practices served to weaken public faith in the integrity of the 2020 presidential election,[754][755] while his disinformation about the pandemic delayed and weakened the national response to it.[472][752]

Some view the nature and frequency of Trump's falsehoods as having profound and corrosive consequences on democracy.[756] James Pfiffner, professor of policy and government at George Mason University, wrote in 2019 that Trump lies differently from previous presidents, because he offers "egregious false statements that are demonstrably contrary to well-known facts"; these lies are the "most important" of all Trump lies. By calling facts into question, people will be unable to properly evaluate their government, with beliefs or policy irrationally settled by "political power"; this erodes liberal democracy, wrote Pfiffner.[757]

Promotion of conspiracy theories

Before and throughout his presidency, Trump has promoted numerous conspiracy theories, including Obama birtherism, the Clinton Body Count theory, QAnon, the Global warming hoax theory, Trump Tower wiretapping allegations, a John F. Kennedy assassination conspiracy theory involving Rafael Cruz, linking talk show host Joe Scarborough to the death of a staffer,[758] alleged foul-play in the death of Antonin Scalia, alleged Ukrainian interference in U.S. elections, and that Osama bin Laden was alive and Obama and Biden had members of Navy SEAL Team 6 killed.[758][759][760][761][762][763] In at least two instances Trump clarified to press that he also believed the conspiracy theory in question.[760]

During and since the 2020 presidential election, Trump has promoted various conspiracy theories for his defeat including dead people voting,[764] voting machines changing or deleting Trump votes, fraudulent mail-in voting, throwing out Trump votes, and "finding" suitcases full of Biden votes.[765][766]

Racial views

Many of Trump's comments and actions have been considered racist.[767] He repeatedly denied this, saying: "I am the least racist person there is anywhere in the world."[768] In national polling, about half of respondents said that Trump is racist; a greater proportion believed that he has emboldened racists.[769][770] Several studies and surveys found that racist attitudes fueled Trump's political ascent and were more important than economic factors in determining the allegiance of Trump voters.[771][772] Racist and Islamophobic attitudes are a strong indicator of support for Trump.[773]

most of his properties to pay down his debts, including personally guaranteed loans, allowing him to avoid personal insolvency.[56][57]

In 1996, Trump acquired the mostly vacant 71-story skyscraper at 40 Wall Street, later also known as the Trump Building, and renovated it.[58] In the early 1990s, Trump won the right to develop a 70-acre (28 ha) tract in the Lincoln Square neighborhood near the Hudson River. Struggling with debt from other ventures in 1994, Trump sold most of his interest in the project to Asian investors, who were able to finance completion of the project, Riverside South.[59]

Mar-a-Lago

In 1985, Trump acquired the Mar-a-Lago estate in Palm Beach, Florida.[60] In 1995, he converted the estate into a private club with an initiation fee and annual dues. He continued to use a wing of the house as a private residence.[61] In 2019, Trump declared Mar-a-Lago his primary residence.[54]

Atlantic City casinos

In 1984, Trump opened Harrah's at Trump Plaza, a hotel and casino in Atlantic City, New Jersey, with financing and management help from the Holiday Corporation.[62] It was unprofitable, and Trump paid Holiday $70 million in May 1986 to take sole control.[63] Trump had earlier bought a hotel and casino in Atlantic City from the Hilton Corporation for $320 million. On completion in 1985, it became Trump Castle. His wife Ivana managed it until 1988.[64][65]

Entrance of the Trump Taj Mahal in Atlantic City

Trump bought a third Atlantic City venue in 1988, the Trump Taj Mahal. It was financed with $675 million in junk bonds and completed for $1.1 billion, opening in April 1990.[66][67] It went bankrupt in 1989.[68] Reorganizing left him with half his initial stake and required him to personally guarantee future performance.[69] To reduce his $900 million of personal debt, he sold his failing Trump Shuttle airline, his megayacht, the Trump Princess, which had been leased to his casinos and kept docked, and other businesses.[70]

In 1995, Trump founded Trump Hotels & Casino Resorts (THCR), which assumed ownership of Trump Plaza, Trump Castle, and the Trump Casino in Gary, Indiana.[71] THCR purchased the Taj Mahal in 1996 and went bankrupt in 2004, 2009, and 2014, leaving Trump with 10 percent ownership.[72] He remained chairman until 2009.[73]

Golf courses

The Trump Organization began building and buying golf courses in 1999.[74] It owns fourteen and manages another three Trump-branded courses worldwide as of July 2020.[74][75]

Trump visited a Trump Organization property on 428 (nearly one in three) of the 1461 days of his presidency and is estimated to have played 261 rounds of golf, one every 5.6 days.[76]

During the 1980s, more than 70 banks had lent Trump $4 billion,[120] but in the aftermath of his corporate bankruptcies of the early 1990s, most major banks declined to lend to him, with only Deutsche Bank still willing to lend money.[121] After the 2021 United States Capitol attack, the bank decided not to do business with Trump or his company in the future.[122]

In April 2019, the House Oversight Committee issued subpoenas seeking financial details from Trump's banks, Deutsche Bank and Capital One, and his accounting firm, Mazars USA. In response, Trump sued the banks, Mazars, and committee chairman Elijah Cummings to prevent the disclosures.[123][124] In May, DC District Court judge Amit Mehta ruled that Mazars must comply with the subpoena,[125] and judge Edgardo Ramos of the Southern District Court of New York ruled that the banks must also comply.[126][127] Trump's attorneys appealed the rulings,[128] arguing that Congress was attempting to usurp the "exercise of law-enforcement authority that the Constitution reserves to the executive branch".[129][130]

Post-presidential investigations

Since leaving the presidency, Trump has been the subject of several probes into both his business dealings and his actions during the presidency. In February 2021, the District Attorney for Fulton County, Georgia, announced a criminal probe into Trump's phone calls to Brad Raffensperger.[131] Separately, the New York State Attorney General's Office is conducting civil and criminal investigations into Trump's business activities, the criminal investigation in conjunction with the Manhattan District Attorney's Office.[132] By May 2021, a special grand jury was considering indictments.[133][134] On July 1, 2021, New York prosecutors charged the Trump Organization with a "15 year 'scheme to defraud' the government". The organization's chief financial officer, Allen Weisselberg, was arraigned on grand larceny, tax fraud, and other charges.[135][136] In December 2021, the New York State Attorney General's office subpoenaed Trump to produce documents related to the business.[137] On April 25, 2022, New York state judge Arthur Engoron held Trump in contempt of court for failing to comply with the subpoena. He imposed a fine of $10,000 per day until he complies.[138]

Books

Using ghostwriters, Trump has produced up to 19 books on business, financial, or political topics under his name.[139] His first book, The Art of the Deal (1987), was a New York Times Best Seller. While Trump was credited as co-author, the entire book was written by Tony Schwartz.[140] According to The New Yorker, "The book expanded Trump's renown far beyond New York City, making him an emblem of the successful tycoon."[140] Trump has called the volume his second favorite book, after the Bible.[141]

Film and television

Trump made cameo appearances in many films and television shows from 1985 to 2001.[142]

Trump had a sporadic relationship with the professional wrestling promotion WWE since the late 1980s.[143] He appeared at WrestleMania 23 in 2007 and was inducted into the celebrity wing of the WWE Hall of Fame in 2013.[144]

Dear Miles Kemp,

I am contacting you today to inform you of an Australian publication of a first time author, contracted with Austin Macauley Publishers, London.
The novel "Reality" was produced over a 6 year period and the author Holly Jackson gained her first contract within a 3 month period of submitting one chapter, the main chapter and name of the book "Reality".
"Reality" is the first edition of a series of books, the completed story broken into 4 books.
The release of the novel in London and on Ebook was released on the 30th October 2020 and is new to the market.
Holly Jackson (author penname) was born in a country town of South Australia and began an ambitious struggle of education and success in business development before putting pen to paper and began a 6 year journey of discovering and developing her writing style and completing her first novel.
Within the time of writing the first novel Holly began the construction of the second edition and then the third edition, before in 2020 beginning the forth edition of the series.
Following completing the second novel in 2020 Holly submitted the completed manuscript to her publisher, Austin Macauley Publishers, London and gained her second contract within a 3 week period, following a brilliant review by the publisher.
The second novel is now in the editing stages with the Production Department of Austin Macauley Publishers, London and is being developed for publication. The publication date of the second book of the series is still undated and unsure due to the effects of the Coronavirus which has hit that part of the world hard and caused numerous delays and problems, of which the publishing house has also been affected and suffered.

"Reality" – A thought provoking journey of one woman's fight for survival and success
An emotional journey of eroticism, danger, entrapment, escapism, hope and faith in love and triumph over adversity, and the dark secret that lay hidden in the shadows of the lies that surrounded her. Gripped and trapped in the sinister evil, lurking and twisting around every step of her strong will to survive and succeed. Will she succumb to the cruel twisted fate of her adversaries, the sexual temptation of her misguided path or find the strength within to reach for her destiny and succeed?

Dear Yanxia,

I am doing really well , thank you.
I hope you are doing well too?

Thank you for your email, it was good to hear from you, and yes it has been a while. As you are well aware it has been troubling times with the virus present in our society's.
I hope the epidemic has not affected your company or you, or your families in any way. I wish you well always.

At this present moment I am concentrating on the newly released publication of my first novel "Reality".
It has taken some time to reach this point and I am right in the mist of it all, so very exciting but also more work to do as it requires as much marketing as possible in order to reach the level of success I am hoping for.
This process could take some time to complete so all my efforts are concentrated in that area at the moment. I have included a marketing video of the published novel for you to view and would like to ask if you could please share it with people in your location, I would appreciate it very much. I have also attached a copy of the publishing house I am contracted with for you to view and share if any interested parties are interested in purchasing a copy.

At this point because of this process I am involved and because of the epidemic of the virus I have currently placed JC INNOVATIONS developments on hold until about the middle of this year.
I would be interested in any discussion concerning the projects we have previously discussed after this point if your still interested.

I hope this email finds you well. Lets stay in touch.
I would appreciate any assistance you could provide concerning my current project, the marketing of my first novel.
Thank you, stay well. Take care

Kind Regards

Payment Investigations

* For your reference please find the below copy of your enquiry: *

Dear Payment Investigations,

* I have received the results of the trace on that payment which confirmed that it was not sent out as [redacted] but was sent and received as [redacted] T, which confirms that my bank account details, name was altered during that transaction. *
* As provided I have also encountered other transactions that have resulted in altered details, as stated in the documented evidence of the Superannuation release of amounts I received into my bank account during an electronic transfer a reduced amount, altered amount than what was released from this company. This is considered to be Fraudulent Activity occurring during the electronic transfer and is then required to be investigated by the Fraud Department, as this activity has now occurred twice, which is not a coincidence, considering all of the documented evidence I provided of Fraudulent Activity occurring in every account over a long period of time. I am insisting that this information be forwarded to the Fraud Department for investigation. I have contacted the CEO Head Office and reported this activity and requested a thorough investigation be conducted into this continuous activity, and of which has now affected my bank accounts with your Banking Institution. I have attached the confirmation I have received of the conducted trace of the payment to Austin Macauley Publishers, which states the altered details of my bank account name which occurred during that transaction and the altered amount released and received into my bank account by Statewide Super.
* If you are not willing to forward this to the Fraud Department I will then contact higher authority myself to report this issue. *
Thank you
Kind Regards [redacted]

Marketing and sales Enquiry - NEW YORK Published Author

JP [redacted]
To: usa@austinmacauley Sat 11-Sep-21 1:25 PM

Dear Austin Macauley, New York,

I would like to introduce myself, my name is [redacted] a published author of Austin Macauley Publishers, London UK under the Pen name of Holly Jackson. I released my first novel, "Reality" in October 2020 in London, which in the first 6 months of publication attracted attention and sales in London and also in my home town of South Australia, which has been a pleasing result. Reality is the first edition of a series of books that are currently under review and construction. The second edition "On the Edge of Reality" was accepted under contract within a 3 week period by Austin Macauley Publishers, London review board and is now under its second review of proofs / production and close to publication and release. The third edition of the series is currently under construction and development, with an addition 2 editions of the series currently started.
In total the series as a whole is 5 editions, which completes the story.

I am contacting you today to enquire as to your interest in releasing the publication "Reality", the first edition into the US market for maximum exposure and future opportunities to release the subsequent editions into this market when published.
Could you please contact me to discuss this further or to your interest in this opportunity.
I have attached the Social Media marketing video that i designed and submitted to Austin Macauley Publishers, London for a Social Media marketing opportunity.
I would appreciate your consideration regarding this contact and enquiry.

Thank you

Kind Regards
